EVENTS AND PROGRAMS

Caregiver Educational Series

The Ford County Public Health Department will be leading a three part Caregiver Educational Series at the Gilman-Danforth District Library every Wednesday at 11:00AM with Part 1 starting on September 2nd. Part 2 will be on Wednesday, September 9th from 11:00AM to Noon. Part 3 will be on Wednesday, September 16th from 11:00AM to Noon.

Grandparents Raising Grandchildren Support Group

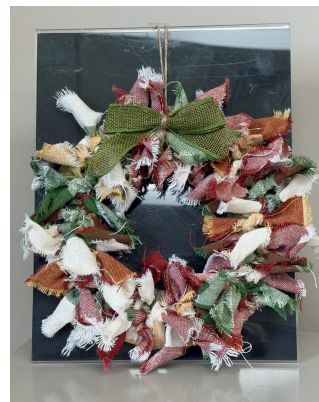

On every 4th Wednesday of the month, Ford County Public Health Department will be leading a Grandparents Raising Grandchildren Support Group at the Gilman-Danforth District Library with the first meeting being Wednesday, September 23rd from 11:00am to noon. This monthly program is designed to support Grandparents Raising Grandchildren/Kindship Caregivers in their caregiving journey.

Adult Book Club

The next book for Page One Book Club is "The Borrowed Life of Frederick Fife" by Anna Johnston. We will be meeting at the Gilman-Danforth District Library on Tuesday, September 15th at 6:00pm.

Take Home Craft

September take-home crafts are available at the Gilman-Danforth District Library! The craft kits are available to pick up while supplies last.

Coffee Hour

On every Tuesday at 10am, the Gilman-Danforth District Library hosts a coffee hour with doughnuts. No library card is required to enjoy!

Preschool Storytime with Mr. Cole

Join Mr. Cole every Friday morning at 9:30am at the Gilman-Danforth District Library. Each week, there are fun stories read, songs sung, dances danced, and an engaging craft to go along with the selected theme. All kiddos are welcome, and no library card is required.
